ANDCOWOMAN

Discover our new, exciting summer collection

A feminine and elegant drop designed for effortless versatility. Each piece offers endless styling possibilities — seamlessly transitioning from casual daytime looks to special summer occasions.

This season, our design team embraced key trend elements such as lustrous satin, playful polka dots, delicate lace details and elegant structured fabrics. The rich plum shade stands out as a key color, blending contemporary trend with timeless sophistication. Alongside this, a soft khaki tone adds depth and balance, while a subtle touch of vanilla ties the palette together in a warm, feminine harmony.

New this season are the must-have barrel pants in comfortable travel quality, the short-sleeve blazer in our signature Nova Stretch quality, and a curated selection of dresses — perfect for everything from wedding celebrations to relaxed days at the beach.

A collection made to mix, match and elevate your style, from day to night
